

KCUFS STUDENT ACADEMIC CONFERENCE

Wednesday 22 January

1:00-3:00 pm | 506

Theme:

“Raising our voices and awareness on diversity and social justice, fostering an inclusive learning environment on campus.”

Saemi Takahashi
(International Relations)

Organizing and Facilitating

Hana Matsushita
(International Relations)

Service Learning: Learning
Support for Junior High School Students Living in Poverty in Kobe City

Hiyori Hara
(Spanish Studies)

Examining Young
Carers in Japan

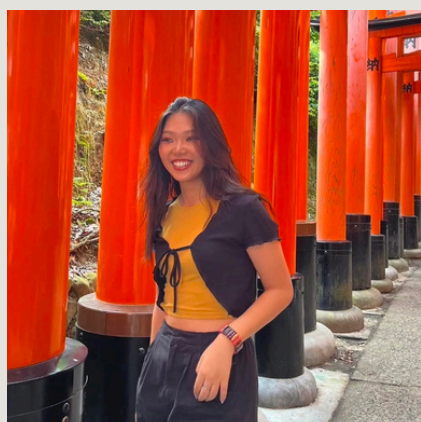

Melati Sone
(International Relations)

Issues of Japan's Immigration Service
Agency

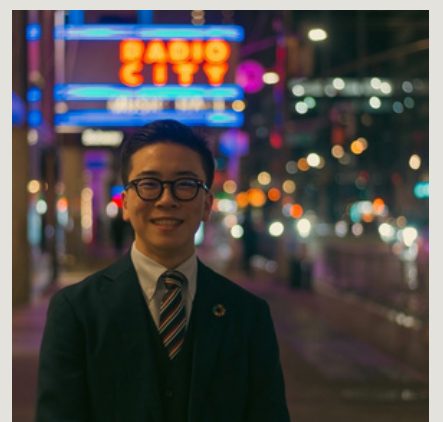

Miyabi Mizuno
(English Studies)
Educational Situation of Children with Foreign Roots and Background in Japan

Mayu Nishikawa
(International Relations)
Gender Norms Embedded
in Entertainment
Industries/Media

Kisaki Sugimoto
(International Relations)
The Gender Norm in
the Local Community

Kotaro Kimura
(International Relations)
What I Saw and Heard
in Futaba

Each presenter will have 10 minutes to present their research, ideas, and experiences on the conference themes in English. Following each presentation, there will be approximately a 5-minute session for questions and interaction with other participants and observers, including distinguished experts Prof. Hollenback, Prof. Matsuda, and Prof. Namikawa. Don't miss this chance to make your voice heard and be a part of this stimulating academic event!

contact: e20062@ug.kobe-cufs.ac.jp (Saemi Takahashi)